Farm Bureau Makes Study Weed Control

The Randall County Farm Bureau directors decided to send two delegates to the National meeting of the American Farm Bureau to be held in San Francisco in December. This action was taken at a board meeting Thursday night. It was also decided to send the regular quota of voting delegates to the State meeting to be held in November. It is understood that the Texas State meeting will be held in San Antonio this year.

Delegates to both the State and the National conventions will be named at the next meeting of the County Board.

At the meeting Thursday, A. E. Wise, chairman, reported on the work of the road committee and other committees. County Agent W. H. Upchurch made a progress report on bind weed control. Most of this report was based on information gathered on a recent trip to the Government Experimental Station at Hays, Kansas. It was learned that very few, if any, trials have resulted in a complete kill of bindweed with one spraying using 2-4-D, which is sold under various trade names. It is now thought that two or more sprayings will be required to kill out old stands of bindweed. Much experimental work must be done before the use of the new chemical will be fully understood. The experimental work at Hays, Kansas, so far indicates that heavy stands of bindweed, as well as, several other kinds of perennial weeds may be eliminated cheaper by the right kind of cultivation, or a combination of spraying and cultivation, than with spraying alone. Mr. Upchurch also reported on some other experimental work in agriculture of interest to the Farm Bureau group.

Hot Checks Are Expensive After Arrest Is Made

Do you give dead checks. It is a bad investment.

Witness a Hereford man who came to Canyon a few weeks ago and gave the News a check for $12.50 for printing which we did for him, and made a purchase from the Canyon Implement & Supply Co. for which he gave a check for $4.55. Evidently the man thought he had gotten next to Canyon business firms for $17.05.

After several letters to the man, and after the checks had been turned down three times, both firms filed complaints with County Attorney Joe Thompson on the charge of bad checks. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell telephoned the Deaf Smith County Sheriff to pick up the man and get the money, or he would bring him back for trial. As a result, the Deaf Smith County Sheriff sent a check for $59.35 to cover the original $17.05 and the costs of $42.30.

Now who said that it paid to give bad checks?

And thanks a lot, officers of both counties, for your diligence and cooperation.

School Leaders Of County Meet

The Board of Education of the Canyon Independent School District is issuing a letter of invitation this week-end to each of the trustees in the Common School Districts of Randall County to attend a joint conference on the educational problems of mutual concern to the children of Randall County and Canyon.

This meeting is called for Wednesday night, September 4th, at 8:00 o'clock in the Canyon high school building. President J. W. Spencer announced today, after conferring with County Superintendent A. H. Hunt.

Regional News Is Distributed This Week First Time

Readers in Canyon will receive a copy of a new supplement to the Canyon News. It is headed Regional News. In the future the supplement will bear the heading of The Canyon News.

The News is sorely disappointed in this new supplement. It was printed in Dallas, and is a mess, if you ask us. Pat Flynn of Amarillo, sponsor of this project says that the supplement will be well printed and of better appearance starting next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill were week-end visitors in Gruver.

New Commissioner Elected Saturday

L. S. JOHNSTON

A second change made in the county's official family for the coming term resulted in the election Saturday of L. S. (Slim) Johnston as Commissioner of Precinct No. 1. Johnston was high man in the first primary and ran a nip-and-tuck race Saturday with G. B. Heath, present commissioner.

In the July primary Tommy Lair defeated A. B. Holt to become the new County and District Clerk on January 1.

Street Paving On Cash Basis

A contract has been entered into between the City Commission and Bell & Braden to pave the streets of Canyon which have been under consideration for some time. A issue was authorized for this purpose and the money is now available to pay the city's part of the paving.

A new feature of this paving is that it is a cash deal. Property owners are assessed $3 per front foot for the paving. Notices have been mailed to all property owners on Eighth Avenue and other streets where paving is contemplated. The contractors will not accept paying liens as has been the custom in the past. Under the cash plan, property owners will save interest on the liens which would be issued under previous plan.

The city advertised for paving under the old plan but had no bidders. The firm is paving highway 87 and is now ready to start work on the streets as soon as property owners pay their assessments.

City officials urge that all property owners make their payments at once in order that work may get under way at once.

Miss Darland Is Elected Physical Ed Instructor

Miss Jane Darland, of Moline, Illinois, has been elected to a position in the Department of Physical Education for Women, of which Miss Ruth Cross is the head.

Miss Darland is a graduate of Fort Smith, Arkansas, High School, and attended the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Her B. S. Degree was earned at the University of Iowa where she majored in physical education. She has done graduate work at the University of Michigan and Wisconsin.

Miss Darland's teaching experience includes the University of Mexico and the University of Michigan as well as extended experience in teaching sports, swimming and dancing in Y. W. C. A. organizations in Moline, Illinois; St. Joseph, Missouri; San Antonio, and Beaumont, Texas.

Extensive travel including trips in Mexico and into Canada have added to Miss Darland's knowledge of problems in physical education. Miss Darland is highly recommended for her poise and ability to take care of her own job without interfering with her co-workers' responsibilities.

President Hill has expressed great satisfaction that he has been able to fill this important position so well.

Lefty Fowler Goes to Amarillo Job

Tom Brasher is now manager of the Consumer Service Station to replace W. H. (Lefty) Fowler, who has resigned to accept a position with the city of Amarillo.

Mr. Brasher is manager of the Consumers Fuel Ass'n, Inc., and is looking after the station until other arrangements can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ezzell of Hereford were here Tuesday on business. Mr. Ezzell is news editor of the Hereford Brand. He is an ex-student of West Texas State and worked on The Prairie.

Nicklaus Is Pleased With Buff Outlook

The training camp for the Buffalo football team will start on Monday, according to Coach W. W. Nicklaus. He is expecting between 75 and 80 men to report for fall training.

Coach Nicklaus stated Tuesday that he has four ex-service veterans as candidates for quarterback. LeRoy Reeves of Childress played one year with the Buffs before entering the service. The other three candidates entered service after graduating from high school and have had no college experience. Nicklaus is highly pleased with this material, all of them being good, clean boys with splendid records.

He is expecting to put a heavy team on the field for the opening game. He has a lineup of men who will average above 200 pounds if prospective lineup works out.

It will be a rare instance if any freshman direct from high school will be able to make the first string this fall owing to the weight and experience of the veterans who will be here for training.

The first game for the Buffaloes will be at Lubbock with Texas Tech on September 21.

New Doctor To Join Neblett Hospital Sept. 1

Dr. Leta Boswell of Stratford is moving to Canyon to become a member of the Neblett Hospital staff. Her work will start on September 1.

Dr. Boswell is a graduate of Baylor Medical College and served her internship in Baylor Hospital. During the past year she practiced medicine with her father in Stratford. After her father's death this summer she found the work too heavy.

Dr. Boswell's mother and grandmother will move here with her. Her husband died recently. She has a son six years old.

Harley Hicks visited friends in Stinnett over the week-end.

Atoms Smashed Here

Tiny figure of man, upper right, gives you an idea of size of University of California's 184-inch cyclotron in this first photo of the atom smasher. Work on the machine was interrupted during the war, but it will be ready for operation this fall. Manhattan District—Army's atom bomb outfit—is assisting in the university's atomic research.

Discharged

Royce E. Boyce was discharged August 12 from Shoemaker, Calif., with the rating of Seaman, first class in the United States Navy. He served one year and seven months, with duty in the Asiatic area.

Ronald Eugene Jansen of Amarillo received his discharge papers at the Naval Training Center in San Diego, August 13. He served one year three months, with overseas duty in the Asiatic-Pacific area.

Lloyd Walter McKee of Amarillo was released from active duty at Camp Wallace, Texas on July 18. As a Lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy, he served three years, nine months, and his overseas duty was in the Asiatic-Pacific area.

Austin Asks About Guard

The National Guard of Texas wants to know if anything has been done about procuring a location for the establishment of a National Guard Unit in Canyon. It is presumed that Company F, or a similar organization will be restored here, if local arrangements can be made.

First of all, temporary quarters must be provided for storage of equipment which the state wishes to send to the local unit. In the second place, land must be procured on which the federal government will build an adequate armory at a later date.

The City and Chamber of Commerce are called upon to give state officers information as to the desires of the local citizens in procuring a return of the unit.

Football Parley Called For Canyon Eagles Friday Nite

Coach R. D. Wheelock, Canyon High School mentor, announced today that he was calling a meeting Friday night at eight o'clock for all high school boys who are interested in coming out for football this year.

Plans for the year's work, as well as final plans for the special football camp on September 1 will be made in this meeting to be held in the High School Building.

Coach Wheelock expects about 35 to 40 boys to report for the 1946-1947 Eagle football squad.

Terminal Pay For Veterans Worked Out

At the meeting on Monday night, September 2, the American Legion will be set up to explain terminal leave pay. A typist is being provided to fill out the applications.

All veterans, whether members of this Legion Post or not, all Veterans of Foreign Wars, and all American Legion members are urged to be present.

Instructions will be given on how to fill out these applications. All veterans wishing to fill out the forms at the meeting on Monday evening must have their actual discharge or a certified copy of their discharge with them. Certified copies of discharges may be gotten in the office of the County Clerk, without any charges.

Jack Jennings, vice-commander of this Post, has received the blanks necessary for making out the applications, and will be acting commander for this meeting.

Veterans and Legion members, be at this important meeting.

R. C. Hillier To Visit Old Home in England in October

R. C. Hillier will leave New York on October 21 on the Queen Elizabeth for London where he will visit his brother and two sisters. He will be away for three or four months.

Mr. Hillier was a native of England, but is a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is a mason by trade. The family has lived in Canyon for several years, and Mr. Hillier has done the brick work on many of the new buildings. His son, Charles, was recently discharged from the navy and will enter West Texas State this fall. Mr. Hillier will retain his home in Canyon for the present.

Mr. Hillier says that the homes of his relatives in England were bombed during the war, and work of restoration has just started.

The Queen Elizabeth was used as a troop ship during the war and this will be her maiden voyage after her restoration as a passenger vessel.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown returned Wednesday from an extended vacation in Colorado.

Bobby Dowd visited in Arlington this week with Blish Breeding.

Jester Elected Governor by Large Majority; Shivers, McDonald and Beauchamp Tops; Johnston Wins

Randall county polled 1792 votes in the second primary Saturday, which was 242 less than the vote of 2034 cast in the July primary. This reduction of 12% under the July primary was better than anticipated by political observers who were fearful that the vote might drop to at least 50%. Most of the decline was in Canyon where the total vote Saturday was 1178, as compared to 1383 on July 27.

The only close race in the county was between L. S. Johnston and G. B. Heath, for the office of Commissioner, Precinct No. 1. Throughout the day this race was neck-and-neck. When the election judges started on the last 40 votes to be counted, Johnston was leading by only 7 votes. He increased his lead 13 out of the last block, making the total 599 for Johnston and 579 for Heath.

Jester carried Randall county 1380 to 412 for Rainey. Jester increased his vote over the July primary by 230, while Rainey received only 47 from the followers of the defeated 12 candidates. Jester carried every box in the county, where there were surprisingly good votes considering the absence of any local races to attract attention.

Randall county voters favored Boyce House for Lieutenant Governor, who has been here several times; and Jesse Owens, candidate for the Court of Criminal Appeals. Both of these men, who led here, were defeated in the state count.

Randall county voters stayed with J. E. McDonald, with an almost 2-to-1 lead. McDonald carried all but one box in the county, which was a tie.

Man Given Three Months In Jail

Morris Leslie was arrested Friday for beating up his wife. His case was in court Saturday and he was given a jail sentence of three months and a fine of $25.

Museum Draws Big Attendance

Attendance at the Museum has shown a decided increase this year over that of the war years.

A total of 3,931 persons registered at the Museum during the month of July, which is the largest July record in five years. Only the month of May exceeded the attendance of July for 1946, when large groups of school children were here to visit the Museum.

There has been a total of 23,784 registered at the Museum for the first seven months of the year. The total for the same period of 1945 was 21,154; and for the first seven months of 1944 the registration was 16,151.

This registration does not take in all of the visitors at the Museum, as many of them fail to register, especially when they come in large groups and scatter throughout the building before attendants at the registration desk have a chance to secure their names.

MOTHER-IN-LAW CLUB

The Mother-in-Law Club will meet Thursday, September 5, in the Thompson Clubroom at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

E. L. Evans from Phoenix, Arizona, is visiting his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Jennings, Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Mahle returned Friday from a trip to visit friends and relatives in Oregon.

Jester Elected in Primary Landslide

Beauford Jester was elected Governor of Texas Saturday by a landslide. Jester, member of the Railroad Commission of Texas, made a clean campaign and refused to call his opponent, Homer P. Rainey, by name until the last political speech in which he exposed the political propaganda which had been issued against him.

Jester has announced that he will continue as Railroad Commissioner and will resign only after becoming Governor in January. In this way he will name his successor to the Railroad Commission.

Since Rainey carried only seven counties in the state, it is evident that Jester will control the State Democratic Convention at San Antonio on Sept. 10. Mr. Jester has announced that he will favor the selection of a war veteran as State Chairman to replace Harry Seay, and will make his selection soon.

Rain Covers All of County

Two more rains fell in Canyon this week amounting to .84 of an inch. The rain Sunday night amounted to .44 of an inch. Added to this was a light rain Wednesday morning which measured .40 of an inch.

Practically all parts of the county have received rain during the past week, but as usual the amounts vary.

The total moisture for August measured 2.29 inches up to Wednesday noon. This is below normal, although some sections of the county have received a much larger amount of rain.

The total rainfall for 1946 now measures 9.07 inches.

W. Holmes Smith Home Burglarized Friday Daylight

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Smith was broken into and a considerable amount of property stolen Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and son left Friday morning for Springfield, Ill., where they planned to visit Mrs. Smith sister and Mr. Smith's aunt. They left about 9:30 o'clock. Neighbors saw the door open and an investigation was made. The house had been torn up considerably, but neighbors did not know what had been taken.

Dr. A. M. Meyer knew where they planned to spend the night in Oklahoma City, and Mr. Smith was contacted. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell inspected the residence and found that entrance had been made by breaking out a window glass and opening the window latch.

The Smiths returned Saturday and found that an electric sewing machine, a bag of old coins, several pieces of jewelry and rings, two watches, together with a large amount of Mr. Smith's clothing were missing.

A description of the missing items have been mailed out by Mr. Cantrell to peace officers of this territory.

Eugene Simmons to the Reform School

Eugene Simmons, 15, was sentenced to the reform school Friday and has been taken there for confinement by Sheriff M. E. Cantrell. He has figured in a number of juvenile cases in recent months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson and family returned Saturday from a vacation visiting Mr. Thompson's parents in Martinsville, Oklahoma, and visiting Mrs. Thompson's relatives in Plainview.

Mrs. C. L. Thompson and niece, Miss Dorothy Nell Henderson from Greenville, North Carolina, left Sunday for Chicago to visit Tommy Thompson, who is stationed with the Navy there.

Editorials

THE SECOND PRIMARY

We were not surprised at any of the state races, and the way the people of Texas voted.

If we had not been for Beauford Jester for Governor throughout the campaign we certainly would have sense enough to vote for him after the last frantic smear campaign was put out by the Rainey crowd. We cannot believe that Rainey was personally responsible for the wholesale flock of falsehoods and insinuations which came from his headquarters during the past week. No man can be a gentleman, the Christian or a scholar who indulges in such practices.

Rainey does not know it, but he was fortunate in being defeated. He would have been unable to accomplish anything should the people have made such an unfortunate choice. His organization of Negroes, CIO followers, Communists, and half baked educators would have fallen to pieces when it saw that Rainey was a failure.

As the matter stands, Texas will continue in safe hands under the direction of Beauford Jester. The flock of isms as represented by Rainey will take a back seat. Goodbye Mr. Harry Seay, Mr. Bill Kitzell and your Rainey-loving State Committee; goodbye Jimmy Allred and your campaign of hate; goodbye Jerry Sadler and such like. It is a good time for Texas to clean the slate politically of these rabble rousers.

We are not surprised at the election of Allan Shivers as Lieutenant Governor; and Judge Tom Beauchamp as Judge of the Criminal Court of Appeals. Both of them had powerful political backing from the East and South sections of Texas where the voters take their politics seriously.

And we are not surprised to see old J. E. McDonald re-elected after the frantic struggle of the State Committee to defeat him. Old J. E. is a friend of the farmers, and made his appeal to them. He was disgusted with all of the Wallace-New Deal meddling with agriculture and was not afraid to say so. He refused to be a rubber stamp for Washington. He is accused of not being a loyal Democrat simply because he stood up and fought for the principles which he thinks are right. Is this heresy? Is it disloyalty to stand for the things in which you believe? Shall we lay down and get run over simply because a majority crawls on the bandwagon and toots it up for a passing political hero? McDonald may be wrong, so far as agriculture is concerned, but he is as right as can be for having intestinal fortitude enough to fight for the things in which he believed. Of course the puppets, who take orders from Washington without question and believe that it is a crime to have a mind of your own, do not believe in this theory of government. Mere rubber stamps was the New Deal theory.

We wish the law would step in and stop the practice of Harris county in giving election returns throughout the day. It is the only place in Texas which openly violates the law and gets away with it. It sure makes it hard on news gatherers in the other 253 counties, which observe the law, to have Harris county blabbing over the radio throughout election day the "unofficial returns."

Most of us have the idea that Russia is to blame for all of our troubles in Europe and Asia. A writer in a popular magazine lays the blame on America. We have been such an isolationist nation that we have failed to develop a foreign policy. If we have become firm in our dealings during the war and after the war, we could now be the unquestioned world leader. We have made a great display of our power and our resources—but have not taken advantage of this to make friends with the little nations. We have allowed old broken down England to dictate our policies. Maybe this writer is correct. But it seems that the only language that Russia understands is power. Fortunately or unfortunately for the world, the American people are not in favor of a great display of power, backed up by an adequate armed force.

We shipped scrap iron to Japan and the Japs started throwing it back at our boys. We are making huge shipments of oil to Russia. For a reason? Washington should investigate.

Charles Gibson of Amarillo is trying to hold on to his job as member of the State Democratic Committee from the 31st District. This year his right to continue the job is challenged by young Bill Craig of Miami, newly elected State Representative. Gibson is charged with trying to ride all sides of every political horse at the same time in order to hold his job. With Jester sweeping the Panhandle, and the State Committee being active in the interest of Rainey, Craig does not like the political set-up. He is going after Gibson's political scalp, if delegates from this section to the State Convention in September are interested in a change. Young Craig is no fence rider. He speaks his mind frankly. If the Panhandle delegation is pro-Jester, Gibson will be ousted.

While Canyon has had no real crimes, all indications point to a big crop of petty crimes, which eventually will lead to a major infraction of the law. Officers are doing their best to cope with the situation. Are we, the citizens, doing our part to help in this campaign to suppress crime? Are we helping the officers, and reporting minor infractions of the law? Unless the officers have the full support of all citizens, there is little that they can do about the situation.

The War Assets Administration is said to have stopped the transfer of 53 war plants to educational institutions. Why? Ask Washington. No one knows. The young men of America were called upon to fight the battles of Democracy. Why should the government now refuse to turn the surplus over to institutions which are using this material to educate the boys who have missed out during the past four years? Or will the brass hats allow this stuff to rot down rather than put it to useful service?

Great is our Democracy. A big cement mixer stands at the Hereford Prisoner of War Camp. A Randall county farmer wants to buy it for his own use. It is too big for commercial use, as it cannot be moved from place to place. Who has charge of it? The farmer can find no one who will claim it. No one will offer it for sale; no one professes to have the least idea as to what steps will be necessary for the farmer to buy the mixer. Chances are that it will set there and rust away before some government agency will stick out its neck sufficiently to sell the machine.

If Senator Pappy O'Daniel was a little more of a politician, instead of so darned honest, he would cease criticizing Washington affairs. Jimmie Allred and other politically minded Texans are taking note of every blast of O'Daniel against New Deal practices. With 1946 politics settled so far as Texas is concerned, the prospective candidates will begin to line up their followers for 1948.

We were amazed to hear political rabble rousers pleading for World War Veterans to support candidates for whom the CIO was spending thousands of dollars to elect. Wonder what veterans thought as they realized that it was CIO which carried on strikes during the war to deprive the fighting men of their needed war supplies?

What is OPA trying to do to the producers? A ceiling has been placed on livestock, but none on feed. Feed prices are beyond control. Stockmen cannot afford to fatten for the market. As a result all breeders are having to cut their herds to the minimum, and stock production will be curtailed because of the high cost of feed. Who knows what is being done to who in this Washington mad scramble.

The News quoted the other week a statement from a man who said that all defeated candidates should be hanged. One thing sure and certain, if this practice was adopted, candidates would not tell so many lies, for fear of a sure ticket straight to hell—where some of them belong for the misrepresentation they put out during the heat of contest.

It would be fine if some Canyon man would get the concessions at Buffalo Lake. So far little interest has been shown in the project so far as operators are concerned. There would probably be little money to be made from the concessions, and a lot of government red tape to be put up with.

G. I. Terminal pay will be the source of many a headache. In the first place, the G. I. is having a tough time figuring out just what he is entitled to; and in the second place the war department is going to have a tough job checking the records to see whether the claim is accurate. The result: G. I.'s are likely to be greatly disappointed.

Truman's advisers tell him that federal spending must be reduced. Since this is election year, with Congressmen wanting to hold their jobs; and since 1948 is only a little way off, we wonder if the President will heed this advice. You understand that it is easy to add jobs, but hard to reduce them. We shall see what is going to happen.

Just what business it is of ours or of England as to what the Jews do in Palestine? Is that worn out old country worth risking another war, with its cost of billions, and loss of thousands of American young men?

According to the latest Gallup Poll, President Truman is still top man in national popularity. Within the Democratic party he is by far the most popular possibility for another term in office; and Dewey remains top man in the Republican party. Sentiment may change before 1948.

OPA says that it is going to stop the black market. Well, it did not stop, or even attempt to stop the black market, before June 30. We wonder just how much stronger the limited OPA is today than it was before Congress got through working it over.

No one in Canyon has proposed parking meters. But they are being installed in many small towns, almost as small as Canyon. These nickel grabbers are a good thing for cities, but would be opposed in Canyon. We still have parking space, and walking facilities in Canyon.

After October 1 we can mail air-mail letters for 5 cents, a reduction in the present 8 cent rate.

NOW, MORE THAN EVER BEFORE

THE ARMY HAS A GOOD JOB FOR YOU!

NON-COMMISSIONED GRADES NOW OFFERED TO FORMER ARMY OCCUPATIONAL SPECIALISTS

Good jobs in non-commissioned grades are being offered now by the Regular Army to qualified former servicemen!

Veterans discharged on or after May 12, 1945, who enlist or reenlist for 3 years may be enlisted in the non-commissioned grade for which qualified, provided this grade is not higher than that held at time of discharge, and provided that at least 6 months of former service was in one of 400 designated military occupational specialties in which enlistment is now desired.

Important, interesting jobs are open in hundreds of skills and trades in the Army, with splendid training and educational advantages! These are in addition to free food, housing, clothing, medical and dental care, low-cost insurance.

There's adventure, travel, education, a secure and profitable future in this vital, realistic profession. Get full details at your nearest Army Recruiting Station.

★ Highlights of Regular Army Enlistments

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in the Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
4. A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
7. GI Bill of Rights benefits assured for men who enlist on or before October 5, 1946.
8. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

When one has lived a long, full life and his steps become feeble and his friends of the olden days are gone, then falling into the last sleep is the natural, the inevitable end of life's chapter—on this side of the veil.

This is somewhat the thought that a friend of mine, Frank Jensen of Dallas has beautifully expressed in a poem written after his father passed on. His father had known the hardships of pioneer days—drouths, depressions, cyclones, hailstorms and had earned his rest. The poem is entitled "If We Could Call Them Back" and has a message of philosophic resignation:

Would you—would I?
And ask that they go with us down the road,
And take again Life's weary, heavy load,
And all the sorrows—now forever flown,
Or would we choose to travel on alone,
If we could call them back?

If we could call them back,
Would you—would I?
From out the far, sweet realms of peace and rest,
To toil once more, with troubled, aching breast,
Along the steep, the stony, thorn-grown way,
Or would we rather they might stay,
If we could call them back?

If we could call them back,
Would you—would I?
E'en though it be to pleasures as of old,
And to the joys that come when hearts unfold
With Love in all its wondrous power—
Ah! would we ask it for one little hour,
If we could call them back?

We can not call them back—
Not you—nor I—
But we will travel on a little while,
And try, despite our grief, to smile.
And when we reach our eager hands
To waiting ones in better lands,
May no one call us back.

Any Pain Can Last
Only Just So Long

Evidence of Ache Ceiling For Humans Found.

NEW YORK.—That toothache—or any other pain you have—can hurt only just so much.

Evidence of a natural "pain ceiling" for human beings, above which increased stimulus cannot add to an individual's distress, has been obtained for the first time as part of a clinical project under way at New York hospital, Cornell Medical center.

The investigation of pain intensity is one phase of pioneer study into the relationship between an individual's bodily ailments and his emotional-psychical makeup.

Medicine calls this field psychosomatics (a combination of the Greek for "mind" and "body") and in recent years there has been increasing study of the remarkably frequent tieup between emotions and such diverse ailments as allergies, colds, accidents and heart trouble.

"Calibrating common sense," is the way in which Dr. Harold G. Wolff, director of the study, describes the investigation.

Case studies have been made on several hundred patients since mid-February. Persons from 14 to 80 have been examined.

In addition to specialized treatment of each case, the clinic's staff collects data from each for 10 special phases of investigation which include: the influence of emotions as a cause of bad breath; effects of various feelings upon the nasal membrane; causes of nausea, and the ways in which disease immunization factors in the blood may vary under hour-to-hour behavior changes.

The study of pain has shown, according to Drs. Wolff and J. D. Hardy, that a person is able to distinguish differences in intensity of painful stimuli up to a specific measurable point, after which there is a leveling off in reaction. It is suggested that the ability to perceive the difference in intensity "has an upper limit at approximately twice the intensity of stimulus at the pain threshold (the point where pain is first felt)."

Egyptians Uncover Temple Nero Used

CAIRO.—A temple to the Egyptian god Thoth, believed built 3,000 years ago by Rameses II, and used through the Roman emperor Nero's time, has been uncovered in excavations 60 miles south of Cairo.

Dr. Abdel Monem Abou Bakr, antiquities professor at Farouk First university, said there was evidence that Nero visited the temple and worshipped there. Nero's name was found in the temple and a painting on the walls depicts Nero presenting gifts to Thoth, he added. The names of Egyptian Pharaohs are engraved on the walls.

Dr. Bakr said he believed Nero ordered paintings of Rameses II removed from the walls and substituted his own picture in an effort to show Egyptians he respected their gods. Several huge statues were uncovered, including a well-done head of a statue which Dr. Bakr believes was of Rameses II. Tombs in the temple contained coffins of storks.

Care of Teeth Is Important to Good Health of Texans

The fact that dental decay is likely to occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If despite the proper application of such procedures, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. Cox said.

It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to make good their dental defects, inevitable or otherwise, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the State Health Officer. "There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduce masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth.

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible, to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declared, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

British Throttle Nazi Youth Plot

Documents Uncovered Reveal Extensive Plans.

LUENEBERG, GERMANY. — An underground Nazi youth organization which made pilgrimages to the secret grave of Heinrich Himmler and planned to undermine youth groups approved by the Allies has been smashed with the arrest of 35 ringleaders, British authorities announced.

The youths, ranging in age from 17 to 26, were arrested recently. A British military court considered the charges against them so serious that their case was referred to a higher tribunal which tries "near-greats" of the Nazi hierarchy.

The organization, known as "Rana" — a contraction of Radical Nationalists — has been operating in the Lueneberg area since the Allied occupation, British authorities said.

They said counter-intelligence men swooped down on the first group of suspects May 13, after having kept Rana under close scrutiny for six months.

The agents uncovered documents revealing organizational plans as well as large stores of explosives secreted near Scharnhorst barracks housing British troops and Lueneberg airport, authorities said.

Nineteen-year-old Rheindold Ritter, only 1 of the 35 who pleaded guilty, disclosed locations of the explosives and implicated several ringleaders in the plot to wreck Allied attempts to bring democracy to Germany, they said.

Rana planned to introduce a "fifth column" into approved youth societies and stir unrest among the population, according to authorities. The group was said to have been formed at the grave of Gestapo Chief Himmler, who swallowed poison when captured by the British in May, 1945, and was buried at the edge of Lueneberg forest.

The grave was unmarked and British officials thought it was in a secret spot until, shortly afterward, floral wreaths appeared on it, they said.

Mikado, Yank Shake Hands; Japs Awed

CHIBA, JAPAN. — Emperor Hirohito publicly shook hands with an American army officer recently. Awed Japs saw the unusual exchange as the emperor arrived here on the final leg of his longest meet-the-people trip.

Lt. Col. Frederick J. Stevenson, El Paso, Texas, military governor of Chiba prefecture, was waiting at the railroad station when the emperor stepped off a shiny maroon coach of his imperial train.

Stevenson snapped his military police escort to attention, saluted the emperor, then extended his hand in greeting. The emperor grasped it.

Earlier in his two-day swing around Boso peninsula — the "kitchen of Tokyo" — Hirohito drove along streets packed with banzai-shouting people to visit Umekichi Sekine, keeper of Inubo lighthouse.

Army Is Seeking Police Dogs to Fill K-9 Ranks

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The army started out recently to recruit German shepherd dogs to fill the depleted ranks of the wartime K-9 corps.

An undisclosed number will be purchased outright, the war department announced, to take the place of dogs which were lent to the army by their owners and have been returned.

Animals of many breeds saw war service, but the army decided to concentrate on German shepherds which did "outstanding work" as messengers, scouts and sentries.

For healthy and fearless shepherds between one and three and one-half years old, weighing between 70 and 90 pounds, the quartermaster corps will pay up to $150.

Price Ceilings Boosted On Bikes, Boat Motors

WASHINGTON. — Retail price ceilings for bicycles are going up 10 per cent and ceilings for outboard motors about 6 per cent as a result of producers' high wage and materials costs.

Announcing this, the OPA said that in the case of both items the increase is over 1941 prices. It added that manufacturers generally have been maintaining those prices.

The producers' increase is effective immediately.

London Girl, Veteran

Wed by Telephone ($60)
LONDON. — Dark-haired Doreen Davies stood in the crowded kitchen of a friend's house in north London recently and was married by trans-Atlantic telephone to a former G.I., Jack Murrell of Fort Worth, Texas. The 15-minute ceremony—at $4 a minute — was performed by a minister at the Texas end of the line with Doreen's father serving as proxy for the bridegroom in London.

Michael-Cullender Vows August 18

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH R. CULLENDER

In a beautiful double-ring ceremony Sunday evening, August 18, in the First Christian Church, Miss Barbara Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michael, and Joseph R. Cullender, son of Mrs. Grace A. Cullender of Hartley, were united in marriage. Rev. Joseph Findley, pastor of the First Christian Church, performed the service before an altar banked with white gladioli and tall white tapers.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Anita Davis played "Clair de Lune" (Debussy), and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Dowlen who sang "At Dawning" (d'Hardelot) and "I Love You Truly" (Bond). Miss Davis also played "Always" (Berlin) as a background for the vows, and the traditional wedding marches.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Martha Hannah Hammond. Miss Hammond's gown was blue net, and she carried a colonial bouquet centered around a gardenia. Bridesmaids were Miss Ellen Root, cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Ben Moody of Stephenville, who wore identical pink net dresses and also carried colonial bouquets. Each wore a pearl necklace.

Little Miss Sandra Michael, sister of the bride, who scattered rose petals before the bride entered, was wearing a white net dress. Meade Michael and Norris Root, brother and cousin of the bride, respectively, served as ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net fashioned with a fitted basque bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her veil was full length, and her bouquet was of Talisman roses. A pearl necklace belonging to Miss Hammond was the borrowed item in the bride's costume. For something blue, she wore a blue satin garter, and for something old she carried a white silk handkerchief which her maternal grandmother had carried at her wedding.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Michael wore a two-piece dress of black and rose plaid. Mrs. Cullender was attired in a light blue rayon dress. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was placed on the lace-covered table. Mrs. Howard P. McQuilkin, aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Miss Ollie Cullender, sister of the bridegroom, poured punch for the guests.

Mrs. Cullender is a graduate of Canyon High School and attended West Texas State College. The bridegroom was graduated from Hartley High School and attended W. T. before entering the Navy. He attained the rank of Ensign in the Navy and received his degree from the University of Texas.

After a wedding trip to Colorado and a short stay with the bride's parents, the couple will be at home in Gruver, where they will both teach school.

Among the pre-nuptial showers honoring Miss Michael, Mrs. Baile McCormick; Mrs. James Jennings, Michael with a shower Thursday afternoon, August 15, in her home. Since the honoree intends to teach school this fall, the schoolhouse theme was carried out during the affair. Gifts for the prospective bride were presented from a little red schoolhouse. Various party games were played by the group.

Vanilla ice cream, pink iced cakes, and pink and white mints were served to the guests.

Those present were Mesdames M. H. Rockwell, Wayland Angel, H. R. Fulton, Forrest Gruner, Ralph Rutledge, H. D. Rose and Tommy, H. D. Hales, J. P. Upchurch, W. S. Bennett, Milton Sanders and Marita Jane, W. C. Smith, Jr., Miss Mary Ben Moody, Mrs. E. A. Michael and Sandra, Mrs. McCormick, and the honoree.

Mesdames James Jennings, George Albers, and Gene Root were hostesses at a shower for Miss Michael in the home of Mrs. E. A. Michael, Friday afternoon, August 16.

Refreshments of angel food cake, nuts, and fruit punch were served. Mrs. Michael poured punch for the guests.

Present were Mesdames B. A. Burrus, Cas Jennings, E. H. Albers, John E. Albers, Pauline Wendelken, Fred Schuette, Jeff Wallace, Charles V. Conatser, W. C. Roberts, E. P. Harding, W. T. Oliver, G. H. Leseberg, Henry Meyer, G. H. Meyer, Lonnie Byars, Marion Higdon, John Jennings, Raymond Tuck, Michael and Sandra, the hostesses, and the honoree.

Miss Michael was surprised with a kitchen shower Friday evening, at the home of Martha Hannah Hammond. Misses Mary Ben Moody, Ellen Root, and Hammon were hostesses.

After a corsage of asters was presented to the honoree, Miss Anita Davis at the piano, played a medley of love songs, and Miss Polly Winstead gave two readings of advice to the engaged.

Gifts for the bride-to-be were hidden about the room and attached to strings which Miss Michael followed to discover the packages.

Miss Hammond poured punch at a lace-covered table decorated with pink candles and a centerpiece of sweet peas. Refreshments of sandwiches, white tea cakes, and salted nuts were served to the guests.

Guests were Mrs. Billy Brown, Misses Deonne Meyer, Vergie, Valleta, and Joanna Haines, Anita Davis, Polly Winstead, Carolyn Black, Martha Jean Dowd, Lila Mae Lill, Louise Conatser, Inell Brotherton, Mary Elizabeth Jennings, Beulah Hammond, Shirley Byars, and Martha Oliver.

Those sending gifts were Misses Tommye Ford, Jane Campbell,

Hayes-Matthews Vows in Happy

MR. AND MRS. EA RL LEON MATTHEWS

Miss Mona Frances Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hayes of Happy, became the bride of Earl Leon Matthews of Hereford, Sunday afternoon, August 18. Performed by Rev. Raymond Partlow, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Lubbock, in the home of the bride's parents, the very impressive double-ring ceremony was read before an altar of orchid garden flowers and green fern, with tall white tapers in the background.

Mrs. Fred Axe of Hereford played traditional wedding music for the wedding. Miss Mary Neal Hayes, sister of the bride, lighted the candles.

Miss Gwendolyn Hayes attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a street dress of pink taffeta and her corsage was white gladioli. Harvard Bishop, brother-in-law of the groom served as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white crepe dress, with navy blue accessories. Her flowers were red

Miss Gwendolyn Hayes attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a street dress of pink taffeta and her corsage was white gladioli. Harvard Bishop, brother-in-law of the groom served as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white crepe dress, with navy blue accessories. Her flowers were red sweetheart roses. For something borrowed, she carried a white Bible belonging to the groom's sister. For something old, she carried a lace handkerchief which belonged to her maternal grandmother.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a powder blue dress with black accessories with a corsage of white gladioli.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for the wedding party and guests was given by the bride's parents. On the lace-covered table, a centerpiece of white asters was arranged. The tall white three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the couple cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. C. E. Hayes served, while Mrs. John Steele presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. L. C. Matthews of Clovis presided at the guest book.

After the reception, the couple left immediately on a short wedding trip to New Mexico and Colorado, after which they will be at home near Hereford, where the groom is associated with his father in business.

Mrs. Matthews is a graduate of Happy High School and attended West Texas State College. Mr. Matthews is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and attended Texas Tech in Lubbock, and West Texas State. He was discharged from the U. S. Navy in June, after serving eighteen months in foreign duty.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Matthews and Merl, Mrs. Howard Bishop, M. L. Simpson, Jr., and Fred Axe of Hereford; L. C. Matthews of Clovis, N. M.; C. R. Conner of Archer City; and Miss Joan Adams of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAtee, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Tippery and Sally Kaye, and Duane McAtee spent ten days in Denver visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown have returned from a vacation trip to Colorado for the past month.

Are You Starting An ORPHAN'S HOME

That would be a commendable enterprise under some conditions, but it is a 24-karat headache if you go into it the way we mean.

You know, of course, that there are 15 to 20 million families in the U. S. A. with a lot of hot money in their pockets . . . a lot of good U. S. Bonds hidden away . . . a lot of folding money stuck into the vase on the pantry shelf.

We say "hot" money and by that we mean money that is anxious to be spent (in fact, over 150 billion dollars of it) for cars, furniture, electric appliances, radios, pianos, and new homes, etc.

"Well," you say, "what has that got to do with the orphans?"

Here's the answer to THAT one.

Out of 75 manufacturers who started to make refrigerators, only 35 were in business before the war and 8 brands did 80% of the business.

Did you get one of those orphans?

742 out of 886 radio manufacturing companies folded up and went out of business between 1925 and 1940, leaving "orphan" owners high and dry.

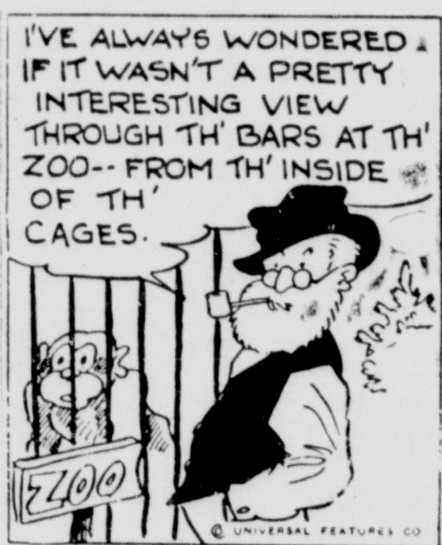

Were you lucky enough to have one of the few surviving makes?

Fifty-six washer manufacturers out of 116 gave up the ghost, leaving 60 still operating, but 80% of the business done by 10% of the survivors. There are more orphans in the offing in this picture. Watch out you don't spend YOUR good money for one of them.

Miss Earline Thomson Becomes Bride of Earl Gilmore Friday

Miss Earline Thomson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Thomson, and Earl Gilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilmore, exchanged wedding vows Friday morning, August 23, in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Hubert Thomson, father of the bride, read the impressive double ring ceremony before an altar on which was an arrangement of white gladioli and pink and white asters. The altar railing was banked with ferns and garland of bittersweet mixed with white symphoricarpos. The altar was flanked on either side by tall white cathedral tapers. The pews, marked with pink and white satin ribbons were opened by James Thomson, younger brother of the bride.

Miss Ava Jo Moreman, organist, played "Love's Greeting" by Elgar as Miss Betty Thomson, and Mrs. Carlton Thomson, sister and sister-in-law of the bride, lighted the tapers. They wore white formal combinations. Carlton Thomson, brother of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," and traditional wedding marches were played.

Mrs. Glenn Thomson, sister-in-law of the bride, serving as matron of honor, wore a gown of pink tulle. She carried a bouquet of pink and white asters tied with satin ribbon of corresponding colors. Jack Taylor, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. E. Burroughs and Lindsey Taylor served as ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Glenn, was attired in a gown of heavy white satin. The sweetheart neckline was trimmed with seed pearls. The finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearls. Her shower bouquet fashioned of an orchid and stephanotis was tied with white satin ribbons and was placed on a white Bible. The Bible, as something old, was given her by her father some years ago.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thomson chose a navy blue crepe dress with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Gilmore wore a dress of gold gabardine accented with a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Jack Taylor, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Gilmore is a graduate of Wellington High School and for the past year has been a student of West Texas State College. Mr. Gilmore is a graduate of Wheeler High School and Texas Tech in Lubbock. He was recently discharged from the Navy, where he served for three years.

The couple will be at home in Lubbock, where Mr. Gilmore will teach chemistry in Texas Tech, while working on his master's degree.

For a pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Thomson, the Woman's Society of Christian Service entertained in the home of Mrs. Alfred Bellah with a shower Thursday, August 22.

In the receiving line to welcome the guests were Mrs. Bellah, Miss Thomson, the honoree, Mrs. Hubert Thomson, her mother, and Mrs. J. L. Gilmore, mother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Clyde McElroy ushered the guests to the registration table where Miss Betty Thomson, sister of the honoree, was in charge. Mrs. H. E. Campfield then invited the guests to an adjoining room to see the many useful and beautiful gifts that were on display.

Max Bellah played a medley of popular and classical music during the afternoon. Mrs. Glenn Dowlen sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly." Miss M. Moss Richardson, famous for her stories, read "Lady Clare" by Tennyson.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Jack Taylor, sister of the bridegroom. Centered on the bride's table was a miniature bride and groom which stood on a mirror surrounded by white baby's breath. On either side of this was crystal candelabra holding pink candles. Pink and white garden flowers at the end of the table completed the decorations.

Others in the house party not mentioned above were Mesdames C. M. Dowlen, A. W. Sternberg, and Miss Jessie DeGraffenried.

Those who called during the afternoon were Mesdames D. F. Sanders, J. M. Craig, J. H. Thompson, J. W. Shook, J. R. Barrett, Dick Ziegler, W. W. Nicklaus, J. K. Dorris, DuBois Walker, J. A. PLEASANT JO 4-H CLUB MET WITH JOHNNIE FAY BONDS

The Pleasant Jo 4-H Club met in the home of Johnnie Fay Bonds, August 20.

June Jennings called the meeting to order in the absence of the president. The Club decided to have a picnic instead of the next meeting. Laverne Henders, Dolores Dietz, and Johnnie Fay Bonds were appointed as a committee to make plans for the picnic.

The meeting was turned over to Miss Patterson who discussed "Are You a Good Eater?"

Refreshments of lemonade and cookies were served by Mrs. G. J. Bonds to Mrs. Ray Priddy, Miss Patterson, Peggy Bonds, Dolores Dietz, Laverne Henders, June and Janie Jennings, and the hostess.

Thalia Wright Weds Robt. T. Fulkerson

Miss Thalia Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wright of Canyon, became the bride of Robert T. Fulkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fulkerson of Tucumcari, N. M., Thursday, August 22.

Rev. J. H. Wright, brother of the bride and pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olney, performed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. Vows were exchanged before a fire place flanked with baskets of gladioli, fern, and tapers which were lighted by Mrs. J. H. Wright, sister-in-law of the bride.

Pre-nuptial music was furnished by Tom Langston, who played "Indian Love Call," and during the ceremony he played "Study in Symbols" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mr. Langston also accompanied Mrs. Tommy Braddy, sister of the bride, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a suit of blue gabardine. Her accessories were turtan and her corsage was gladioli and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the home of the bride's parents. The reception room was decorated with pink and white asters. Mrs. Tommy Braddy presided at the bride's cake, and Mrs. J. H. Wright presided at the punch bowl.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas High School and West Texas State College, and will teach in Tucumcari Public Schools next year. The groom is a graduate of Tucumcari High School and served two and one-half years in the army in the European Theater. He is now employed by the Conoco Oil Company of Tucumcari.

After a short wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Tucumcari.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dawson and sons of Madera, California, are visiting relatives and friends in Canyon and Amarillo.

A JOKE, SON!

"Who's that?"
"Smy friend Jones. He came here to see if he couldn't cure his absentmindedness."

"How is he getting along—improving?"

"Well, after his wife took him downtown in a taxicab he kissed the driver and gave his wife 60¢."

"Improving, huh?"

"I don't know. At breakfast his back must have started itching. He poured molasses down his back and scratched his pantakes."

Thanks To All

I am never, never going to run for office again; unless I change my mind, but it is my mind, and I reserve the right to change it.

Boy, what a race. We got out all hands and the cook, and then we could not get more than 20 votes apart.

I sincerely thank each and every one of the 579 who voted for me. Some of you went to a lot of trouble in order that you might vote, and I want each of you to know I surely do appreciate it. To each of you that worked to help me in the race in any way, thanks to you so much.

To you who did not see fit to vote for me and voted for my opponent, I hope that you are happy in so doing. We live in a free country, and each of us have the privilege and right to vote for whom we please. This is what I do and I would be most ungrateful to you if I did not grant you the same privilege.

I have never put holding office on a money basis, as some may think; if I had I would be a plain fool, as I have thrown my personal business away in order to serve the people. I have always considered holding office on the basis of being of service to my community.

Let us all be good friends, and work together to try to make Canyon and this community a better place in which to live.

Financial Strength of Agriculture Continues to Improve, Survey Shows

Texas agriculture is currently in a stronger financial position than it was at the close of World War I, according to W. C. Black, vice president and cashier, who has been designated by the Texas Bankers Association as Randall County Key Banker.

Reporting on the results of a national survey of bank lending in 1945 made by the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Black said that in Texas it shows that farmers use only a fourth of the bank credit available to them. However, 55.2 per cent of the 398,183 Texas farmers did avail themselves of bank credit. The banks in the state which serve agriculture made 636,394 loans to 219,840 farmers last year for a total amount of $267,950,000. On January 1, 1946, these banks had farm loans outstanding of $225,777,000. On the same date, the banks had $757,701,000 additional for agricultural loans had the farmers needed it.

That the credit extended by the banks to their farm customers is a useful tool of agriculture is shown by a breakdown of these over-all figures, he added. Last year 177,161 farmers procured farm production loans in an aggregate amount of $192,859,000. Farm real estate loans were made to 6,890 farmers for a total of $17,470,000. On January 1, 1946, there were outstanding in the banks $99,537,000 in farm production loans and $17,379,000 in long-term farm real estate loans. Loans on crops in storage insured by the Commodity Credit Corporation were made by the banks to 35,789 farmers for a total of $57,621,000. A total of $108,861,000 in C. C. C. loans remained outstanding at the beginning of this year.

"The fact that Texas farmers have found it necessary to use only a small part of the bank credit available to them indicates that they are in a far stronger financial position today than they have been for many years," Mr. Black said.

"During the war years farm incomes have been high and farmers have wisely used their earnings to pay down debt and accumulate savings in War Bonds and bank accounts.

"The high level of bank assets and the high degree of liquidity of the banks assure Texas farmers of ample bank credit in the future to meet all of their needs. At the end of last year, Texas county banks had an average of cash and United States Government bonds equal to 80 per cent of their deposits. By contrast, in 1929 country banks in this state had cash and government securities equal to 42 per cent of deposits. The high ratio of liquidity is one of the most promising indications for the continued financial well being of our farm community."

promoting a program which will result in many benefits to the farm community.

"One immediate aim of this program," Mr. Black said, "is to prevent post-war inflation. The banks are encouraging their farm customers to continue to save through purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds, and avoid going into debt to buy farm land at high prices. The average price of farm land in Texas is now 58 per cent above the 1935-39 average. Bankers are watching this situation closely and are urging their customers to keep in a safe financial position.

"For the long-term, the banks are encouraging farmers to engage in well-rounded and diversified farm production, and are placing particular emphasis on conservation of the productivity of the soil. Another part of this program is concerned with the education of farm youth through sponsoring activities of 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers."

Educational Board Seeks to Guard Funds of Gas Tax

AUSTIN — Endorsement of the Good Roads Constitutional Amendment to be voted upon in the November 5 election was announced at the meeting of the State Board of Education Monday.

The Good Roads Amendment prohibits the diversion of gasoline taxes and motor vehicle registration fees to non-highway purposes, with the exception of one-fourth of the gas tax, which will continue to be allocated to the Available Free School Fund.

In adopting a resolution supporting the amendment, the board stated that there are 6,000 school buses in operation in the State of Texas, traveling 50,000,000 miles each year and transporting 300,000 school children at an annual cost of $7,000,000.

"Operation over unimproved roads adds to the cost of upkeep and reduces the life of a bus," the Board of Education, pointed out. "Construction of hard-surfaced school bus routes assured by the good roads amendment will reduce the annual cost of school transportation by an estimated $1,500,000."

An adequate transportation program is the controlling factor in the creation of rural high schools and consolidation of rural school districts, the Board declared, and continued expansion of the rural school program, now reaching maximum development under present road conditions, will be guaranteed by the construction of hard-surfaced school bus routes.

In further explaining its stand, the board of Education emphasized that it has been generally understood that one-fourth of the gasoline tax was originally allocated to the Available School Fund because the gasoline tax was declared to be an "occupation tax" and one-fourth of all such taxes were allocated to the school fund by the Constitution; however, decisions of the State Courts have held that this is an "excise tax" and, therefore, the School Fund receives one-fourth of present solely because of statutory direction and does not have a constitutional right to share in this tax.

"This Amendment," the Board explained, "will provide for a constitutional guarantee of that one-fourth of the gas tax."

Stevenson Talked on Service Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

T. S. Stevenson was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday, talking on community service.

He introduced three Canyon boys who had been Prisoners of War in Germany, and urged that Rotarians as well as other citizens give every assistance to returning veterans, especially those who had been prisoners. Young men who had been prisoners and were introduced were: Jack Neil Jennings, Tommy Lair and Hubert Walker.

The motto of Rotary is "Service Above Self." Mr. Stevenson recalled that the best business men of every community believed in this motto. Because of the record of Rotarians in living up to this motto, Rotary is respected throughout the world. Speaking of his business experience in years past, Mr. Stevenson stated that business men tried to give all the service they could, but those who did not place service above self rendered this assistance solely for the purpose of making as much profit as possible from their customers. Those who believe in this motto will not patronize the black market, or take advantage of his neighbor.

Elmer Wooten, new superintendent of the Canyon schools, was introduced and expressed great satisfaction in being called back home to the responsible position he now holds. Education is the main business of Canyon, and he wanted to see a better public school system so as to provide material to make a greater college.

Supt. Wooten and Bob Wheelock, coach of the Eagles, announced that the prospective football candidates would leave Monday for a training camp.

Coach W. W. Nicklaus introduced his four candidates for quarterback on the Buffalo squad, and stated that he was well pleased with the prospects for the season.

J. A. Young, manager of the Canyon Steam Laundry, was introduced as a new member.

Visitors were: Joe Willoughby, Roy Morse, Junior Melton, LeRoy Reeves, all from the college; R. D. Wheelock, Elmer Wooten, Fred Jennings, Thos. Lair, of Canyon; Chas. Strain of Dumas; Guy Carlander, Arch Hunsley, L. Wood Jackson, W. A. Askew, Sandy Cross, all of Amarillo.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Hubert Thomson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will be in the pulpit Sunday morning for the first time since his recent operation. For the evening service, Dr. Earl G. Hamlett, District Superintendent, will fill the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patke were week-end visitors in the E. I. Boyce home. Mrs. Patke is steadily improving.

WHY ARE WHEATLAND PLOWS

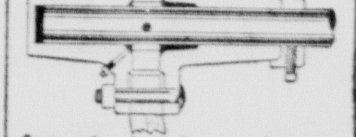

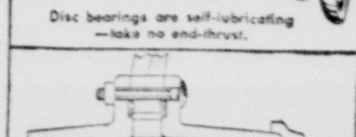

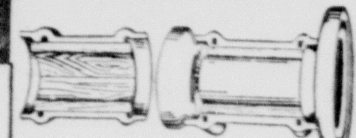

THE MOST POPULAR?

Even the women folks prefer MM Wheatland Disc Plows because there's no criticism of the job done. They simply do the job just right.

There is an MM Wheatland to enable you to cut the cost of preparing your seed bed as much as 50% over ordinary methods. 26 inch discs and 10 inch spacing between discs give it wide cut and light draft.

• Plows and Discs in ONE OPERATION—yet very light in draft—seeders or drill attachment available. • More stable and rocks thoroughly with the soil—plows from 3 to 9 inches deep. • Helps prevent air pockets and soil blowing. • Can be used to build terraces the economical way.

Although the degree of concavity is about the same as in ordinary 20 inch discs, the depth of concavity is 4 inches as compared to only 2 1/4 inches. As a result MM Wheatland Plows turn the soil much better. Extra large discs mean less wear on the disc bearings so discs make fewer revolutions per mile. Discs are specially heat-treated steel, highly polished to scour better. RIGID FRAME. This frame is now famous as the one that won't "twist," "wear," or "give"—thanks to its BRIDGE TRUSSED construction and the extra-heavy-duty casting and steel plates that connect the heavy axles to the rigid frame. Hand and power lift models—See your MM dealer for sizes and when available—they're worth waiting for.

Old Army Post
Left to History

Ground That Echoed the Tramp of Famous Men
To Be Abandoned.

ST. LOUIS—Historic Jefferson Barracks parade ground, hard packed by the tramp of such famous men as Ulysses Grant and Robert E. Lee, will soon be matted by towering weeds and uncultivated grass.

Scheduled for abandonment as a military installation, the 120-year-old post has been declared surplus and will be turned over to the War Assets administration.

Already city officials and other interests are scrambling for the wooded acreage on the banks of the Mississippi.

Homes some day will spring from its grassy sweeps, but the history and tradition it has made will not be forgotten, says the United Press.

Quiet Now Prevades.
Already a strange quiet has settled over the post, harking back to the days when it was carved out of the wilderness.

A few tiny log buildings housed men who went out to fight such troublesome warriors as Black Hawk.

Named in memory of Thomas Jefferson, who died a few days before the property was bought in July, 1826, the barracks became one of the major military posts of the nation.

Threaded through its history are such names as Jefferson Davis, William Tecumseh Sherman, Phil Sheridan, Zachary "Old Rough and Ready" Taylor, John C. Fremont, and Grant and Lee.

The young Lieutenant Grant moved into the post on September 30, 1843. Soon after, the shadow of war with Mexico hung over the nation.

Ran Horse-Car Line.
Grant moved out with his regiment, but returned when the clouds cleared.

He retired from the army and bought a farm on nearby Gravois road. There he married Julia Dent, and it was from this farm he hauled cordwood to the military post.

Later, he re-entered the army to become the leader of the Union army in the Civil war.

Sherman (of "war is hell" fame) also was a resident of the barracks district. He operated a horse-car line in St. Louis.

When he learned crates marked "marble" going down the Mississippi contained guns and ammunition, he re-entered the army.

The aftermath of the Civil war is portrayed in the row of white crosses that stand guard over the Union and Confederate dead in the cemetery at Jefferson Barracks.

The weeds will be growing at the barracks soon, covering many historic spots and markers. But history will remember "J.B."

Helicopters Will Carry
Mail in Suburban Service

CHICAGO.—Regular helicopter air mail service will start in the Chicago area late this year or early in 1947, the post office department announced recently.

Gael Sullivan, second assistant postmaster general, said the helicopters will operate on circular routes from a central airport, picking up and delivering airmail to outlying communities on regular schedules.

Sullivan said the "shuttle" plan had been worked out in strict secrecy during the last four months. It will be tested in Los Angeles this summer.

Army Scientists Find Vaccine for Dengue Fever

WASHINGTON—Army scientists have developed an effective vaccine against dengue—or "breakbone" fever, a tropical malady which affected more than 84,000 troops during the war years, although there were no deaths.

Development of the vaccine, first actual weapon against this mosquito-borne disease which occurs in epidemics in the warmer portions of the temperate zone, was announced by the commission of neurotropic virus diseases of the army's epidemiological board.

PORTLAND, ORE.—Mrs. Louisa Dingman, who can still thread a needle without glasses at the age of 81, chided her 21-year-old great grandson, who was complaining about the pain from a wisdom tooth he was cutting:

"Why, I don't complain about mine at all."

And opened her mouth to show her first wisdom tooth.

For Safety, Economy, and Mileage choose the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

One of the taxi fleets that tested the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown before it was offered for public sale was Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. In addition, it was tested on police cars and the B.F. Goodrich test fleet over millions of miles in all kinds of weather under severest conditions, and even at high speeds.

All these tests supported Mr. Ballantine's findings that: "... their wider, flatter tread gives our cabs better traction and surer, safer stopping. The stronger cord body means fewer interruptions and service stoppages. And in actual mileage, tests on our fleet prove they OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES. Because Silvertown tires cover more ground, our cabs can, too, without interruption."

Yield Is $100,000 From Tithe Wheat

Dynamite Kernels Multiply In 'Biblical' Test.

TECUMSEH, MICH.—Perry Hayden, Quaker miller, who six years ago planted a cubic inch of his "dynamic kernels" of wheat, said recently that this year's final harvest would be more than 113 million cubic inches.

The cumulative product of the original inch of "biblical tithing wheat" would have a market value of more than $100,000, he added.

Mr. Hayden pledged a tenth of each year's crop to the church in what he called "a demonstration of the principle of tithing as taught in the Bible."

The final public harvesting ceremony is planned for August 1 at near-by Adrian, where a 10-acre plot of wheat, descended from the original inch, has been planted in the center of the county fairgrounds race track.

Because the final sowing could not be contained in any tract in Michigan, the seed was distributed to 267 farmers in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Tennessee.

Each farmer has pledged to give a tenth of the return to a church or related organization. Mr. Hayden reported that churches of 27 denominations, the Gideons, the Salvation Army and other groups would share the $10,000 tithe expected from the year's final crop.

He declared that the biblical promise of increased returns under a system of tithes was borne out by the project.

"The normal increase of wheat in Michigan averages under 15-fold," he stated. "The first year the increase from the original inch of 'dynamic kernels' was 50-fold; the second year, 55; the third, 16; the fourth, 27, and the fifth, 19 — and these figures take into account the 10 per cent tithe taken out each year."

"This proves to me, at least, that we were getting some extra assistance."

Sees Big Increase In Building on Farms

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Expenditures of close to one billion dollars a year for farm buildings during the next five years are predicted by Frank J. Hallauer of the forest service.

In a report made public by the senate small business committee, Hallauer said this prospect was based on such factors as an accumulation of deferred maintenance, a healthy agricultural balance sheet, a high level of income and a growing appreciation of higher standards of income.

Expenditures for farm building have been less than depreciation, he said, since 1943.

Warning that the farm balance sheet could change for the worse, he said: "The forces of inflation have not yet run their course; postwar adjustments are yet to be made."

Marines to Cut Points Needed for Discharge

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Marine corps headquarters recently announced a revised demobilization schedule that affects 40,000 men and forecasts an end of the point system after July 15. Points for male personnel will drop from 30 to 28 on June 1, to 22 on July 1, and to 20 on July 15. Thirty months of active service also will establish discharge eligibility beginning July 1.

On August 1, the service requirement will be cut to 24 months and all fathers with two or more dependent children, regardless of the time spent in the corps, will qualify for discharge.

On September 1, the length of service requirements will drop to 18 months and fathers with more than 12 months active service will qualify for discharge.

South Africa for Land Curb Against Indians

CAPETOWN, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA. — The Asiatic land tenure and Indian representation bill, which restricts the purchase of land by Indians to certain areas, was passed on third reading in the Union senate recently. It then went to the governor general to be signed. A Nationalist (opposition) amendment providing for a referendum on the measure was rejected 22 to 10.

An outcry in India while the bill was before the South African parliament led to the recall of the Indian high commissioner in South Africa. Trade sanctions against South Africa have also been imposed in India as retaliation for the measure.

Doughnut Dunkers:

Here's News for You
BRIDGEPORT, CONN. — Jimmy Miranti, a baker, has put a doughnut on the market that he hopes will make dunking acceptable even in the highest society. The doughnut dunker's delight consists of a plain doughnut with a hole in the middle and a handle on the side. The handle is twisted like a cruller and Jimmy said it would eliminate dripping coffee on the tablecloth.

A Run in Hosiery

By JERRY M. DARRELL
McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

BID EVANS frowned as he watched the mob in front of the counter. He had had no idea that it would be like this when he told his sister he would buy a pair of stockings for her. Well-dressed women shoved and pushed worse than a bunch of soldiers just back from the front fought for places in the line at mail call.

Suddenly, he noticed her. Very pretty, probably not more than 23. She was dressed in that slick mannish style he liked because it always made a pretty woman look twice as feminine as ruffly things did. "She's a girl out of a moving picture," he told himself, "a technicolor at that."

He took in her gray suit, shoes and gloves, her yellow hat, scarf and huge purse. All were set off by her gleaming, copper-colored hair. Sympathetically he noticed that she wore a little pin — three stars on a field of white. Two of the stars were blue, the other gold. Attached to the pin were three guards — an airplane, a gun and an anchor.

Interested, he watched her maneuver to get through the crowd. She stopped elbowing and gave up. Then she considered a moment, went around the end of the mob, picked up a couple of pairs of stockings, walked to the near-by door, compared them, then rolled them up and slipped them into her roomy purse. Next she strolled to the lingerie counter.

He whistled softly, "A shoplifter, and cool as a cucumber. Anyone seeing her would think she had a right to them. Little fool, wonder how long she thinks she can get away with it."

He hurried after her and took her arm.

He followed her. When a saleslady approached, the girl smiled, shook her head no and sauntered on. "Steady as a veteran. She's no rookie at the game. But, darn it, she's too nice for that type of thing." Impulsively he hurried after her and took her arm. "Where can we go and talk? Here in the store."

"Why—" she looked up at him with large gray eyes "—on the mezzanine. There's a lounge for shoppers there. We can go up these stairs—"

"O. K., sister. But don't think you're going to give me the slip. I'm on to you and you're not getting away. You see, I saw you lift those stockings."

"Oh, that's what's on your mind." "You're a cool one." He seated himself. "Suppose you think that because you're pretty you can get away with murder."

"No." She studied him levelly. "But tell me who you are and by what right you censor what I do." "Think I'm a crook too? Well, I'm not. I'm a discharged soldier who was a detective before he went into the army. In the old days I'd have turned you in without a qualm."

"And why don't you now?" "Because of that pin you're wearing, sister. A girl with a pin like that, if she has a right to it, belongs to a mighty fine bunch."

"I have a right to it." Her eyes clouded and her finger touched the pin gently. "The sailor is in the Pacific, the infantryman in Germany — the flyer didn't return from a mission in Italy."

"Good guys, I bet."

"The best brothers a girl ever had." She smiled wistfully. "Evidently not the kind to approve of what you're doing. Men aren't fighting for women who go around taking what doesn't belong to them. They don't know what you're up to."

"They sure do know," she grinned impudently, "and approve."

"What do you mean—approve?" he demanded belligerently.

"Always the dick." She viewed him loftily. "I simply helped myself to the stockings because they were having a run in hosiery and were too busy to wait on me. You see, Mr. Dick, I was filling a telephone order. I happen to be in charge of the shopping service here." She rose. "However, you appear to be a nice person, so when you're in the store again drop in to see me. That's my office over there."

He watched her disappear into a glass encased cubby on the door of which was printed, "Ruth Edgemont, Shopping Service."

Maine was named after an ancient province in France.

Funny Man

By WILLIAM J. MURDOCH
McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

WILDERS came right to the point. "You're slipping," he told Jeff. "Your gags don't go over any more. Maybe you do need a studio audience after all."

"No, I don't want one," said Jeff Jackson. "I got tired of seeing people laugh at me in vaudeville."

"They aren't laughing now," Wilders said between nibbles at his cigar. He opened a desk drawer and drew out a thick pad of letters. "Beefs—all of them about you," he said. "Jeff, you're a natural, with that backwoods dialect and that corny line of guff. I ought to know—I've been in this business for 30 years. But you're slipping, Jeff. What's eating you?"

Jeff Jackson wanted to lean over and twist his manager's nose right out of other people's business. He didn't mind the backwoods crack, because that's just what he was—backwoods enough to resent a little pipsqueak snooping around property that wasn't his own. But twisting Wilder's nose wouldn't help Rose Edith; and Rose Edith, sick as she was and the best sister any man ever had, needed all the help she could get.

"Maybe I'm just tired," Jackson said through a yawn. "This radio business is new to me."

"It'll be a perfect stranger if you don't come around," Wilders replied dryly. "I don't want to lose you, Jeff. So I've hired some writers for you."

"No!" Jackson said flatly. "I'm no trained seal to catch someone else's fish."

"Bestor's throwing fits, not fish," Wilders snapped. "Says we're not selling enough of his bread and he's threatening to take you off the air."

"My contract—" Jeff said sullenly.

"Paper, just to get you off that rube vaudeville circuit. What's it going to be — writers, or the front door?"

Sanatoriums were expensive. So were doctors and doctors. Rose Edith had him so worried now he couldn't be himself on the radio. And if his income were cut off—

"All right," Jeff said. "It's writers."

A week of writing, arguing, hashing, rehearsing and rewriting. A week of rehearsing, timing, cutting and padding. A few minutes at the microphone in the empty studio Jeff Jackson insisted on. Another blast of criticism from the letter-writing fans and another session with Wilders. "I don't know what to do with you," he growled at Jeff. "I've hired the best comedy writers in the business and still you flop."

"I'm sick of this 'Laugh Clown Laugh' act. It's my sister. She's more dead than alive, and you expect me to stand up before a microphone and make folks laugh," Jeff said.

Wilders gestured impatiently. "Why didn't you say so before? We'll get the best specialists. Don't worry about the bills, Jeff."

"I can take care of my own," Jeff said with contempt. "It's not money I'm worrying about; it's Rose Edith. You're a city boy, Mr. Wilders. You don't know how close families are down home. Pa's place was 'way back in the hills and we didn't have a chance to know many other kids, so Rose Edith and I just naturally had to play together."

Wilders was silent. "I see how it is," he said finally. "But how can you take care of Rose Edith if Bestor finds someone to take your place, Jeff? Who'll pay the bills?" Wilders closed in fast. Here was a chance to sock money-spending John Q. Public right in the old tear ducts — a perfect sob story if ever there was one. "Instead of going through a comedy routine this week, tell the folks what you've just told me—they'll love it and will beg forgiveness for being so tough on you. Jeff, it's your only chance to hang on to that dough that Rose Edith needs," he warned, seeing the fire in Jackson's eyes.

The next Wednesday evening Jeff stood at the microphone without a script. Simply he told his millions of listeners about Rose Edith, about the childhood they had shared. He told them of the hardships at home and how he determined always to take care of her. He told of her illness, of the almost unbelievable number of doctors and nurses who were now caring for her. He closed with a brief, "That's my story, folks."

The studio telephones were jangling almost before he finished. Letters by the hundreds flooded the station the next day. And the essence of the response was found in a short paragraph taken from a radio column in a newspaper which the next day hit the streets a few hours after the doctors told Jeff that Rose Edith had passed the crisis, that she was on the long, long road to recovery.

"In answer to his many recent critics," the item read, "Jeff Jackson ably vindicated himself at the microphone last night, at the same time re-establishing himself as one of radio's most promising performers. In his familiar homey style, Jackson related the adventures and misadventures of his imaginary sister Rose Edith, one of the most uproarious and delightful characters he has yet created. He was never funnier."

California means "land of oven's heat."

NOISY NEIGHBOR

What this country needs is a noiseless airplane, says the Civil Aeronautics Administration. CAA discloses that when an attempt to locate a new airport is made, nearby residents put up the howl: "Not here—too much noise."

Principal complaints are: (1) baby can't sleep; (2) conversation is interrupted; (3) dishes rattle in the cupboard. In Washington, music-lovers have their own pet peeve. In summer the National Symphony gives its concerts on the banks of the Potomac. There it saws and tootles away manfully, trying to drown out the roar of airplanes hustling in and out of Washington's busy National Airport.

Anyway, the bachelor has one advantage. He gets to use his own telephone once in a while . . . providing he can get a telephone.

If you stand in the way of your friend's prosperity you'll only hinder your own.

Lights of New York

by L. L. STEVENSON

Manhattan Scene: Billy Rose and Morton Downey in earnest confab in the Cub Room. . . . The mighty mahout would like to star the svelte Celt in the new "concert variety" show he is putting together. . . . He's offered Downey five times as much as he paid him only six years ago when the Irishman's pipes warbled and whistled, "Yours for a Song," the theme song of Rose's Aquacade at the World's Fair. . . . Downey, who's been rediscovered on the air waves and as a result, is paying about 90 per cent of his income to the government, politely refuses even though he avers, "it isn't fair to Morgenthau." . . . Jane Pickens looking very Greek goddessy in daring sandals that lace around her ankles, at the Versailles. . . . Glamorous Gertrude Nieson rocking Le Ruban Bleu to its very foundations by showing up in black nylon stockings. . . . Stately Irene Rich, swathed in precious mink, getting admiring glances at the 1-2-3—it's great to be Rich!

Side Glances: Vera Zorina, the glamour girl of "The Tempest," is making up for the childhood years of study that ballet took from her. She is deep in text books ranging from the history of philosophy to the theories of acting by the great theater people of bygone days. . . . Kate-Ellen Murtah, wackiest one-third of the Murtah Sisters trio, is serious enough about her painting. Whenever she is in town she attends long-hair life classes under the pseudonym of Katherine Martell. . . . Helena Bliss, the "Song of Norway" diva, has not touched a 50-cent piece in more than four years—since the day when, after she had taken four of them in change, she sprained her ankle, lost a valuable brooch, parted from her boy friend of the time and caught a cold. She got rid of the coins hurriedly and since then, has insisted on taking her change in smaller denominations.

Faces & Places: Grace Hartman tripping — but literally — into Theodore's as her famous foot collides with the doorstep. . . . Jean Murtah very incoignito at La Martinique even without dark glasses — she has dyed her naturally ash-blond hair brown. . . . Al Moritz, rising young tunesmith, giving the wide-eyed and wide-eared spectators at Lindy's a whistling review of the score of "Blue Holiday," the Ethel Waters-Josh White revue formerly titled "The Wishing Tree." Incidentally, it was one of Moritz' tunes that suggested the new name for the show. . . . Up to the minute Arlene Francis, hep to the headlines, wearing a corsage of tiny clustered United Nations flags at the Stork. . . . Leo G. Carroll, who is usually placid and unruffled, hurrying frantically through an early dinner at Bradley's so that he may make his curtain at the Lyceum theater on time—the late George Apley?

This & That: Gloria Nord, beautiful "Skating Vanities" star, has taken to traveling from town to town during the show's cross-country tour, via motorcycle, her favorite vehicle—sic transit Gloria? . . . Jose Greco, flamenco dance specialist who is forming his own company, won't set foot on a stage unless he is wearing something red, even if it's only a red handkerchief. . . . Chuchu Martinez, the handsome troubadour from Mexico, eschews the usual little black book to keep track of his favorite telephone numbers. Chuchu keeps his on cards in a small portable filing cabinet. . . . Ralph Maurice, host of Bradley's, collects rare recipes as a hobby. His collection of nearly 3,000 includes authentic recipes for dishes served to Catherine of Russia, Samuel Johnson, Queen Victoria, Louis XIV and many other well-knowns of the past.

Grub Damage

Cattle owners can help prevent an annual national waste of over $50,000,000 a year in damaged hides, beef and dairy products by instituting a campaign against cattle grubs. The control program is most effective if all cattle owners cooperate in it since heel flies move from farm to farm. The loss in hides from grub damage each year would supply shoes for two million front-line soldiers. One out of every three hides is damaged by grubs. In 1942 carcass trimming losses from grub damage amounted to nearly 12 million pounds of meat. To offset the loss on grubby cattle, packers are forced to make a discount of from 50 cents to $5 per head. Damage can be greatly reduced by treating infested cattle with a wash containing derris or cube powder. Applications should be made after swellings first appear and should be repeated about once a month as long as necessary. If applications are thorough, each treatment will result in the destruction of about 95 per cent of the grubs present.

Dairy Ration

Where five or more cows are kept it is practical to provide silage for them. Three to four tons of silage should be provided for each mature cow. This provides succulence and a cheap source of nutrients for milk production. An acre of corn fed through a silo will make more gallons of milk than any other way it can be fed.

Grain is essential, but should be balanced with the roughage. It should be so mixed as to supply the nutritional needs of the cow not met by the roughage that is being fed. High protein hay and reasonably low protein grain will give excellent results. Low protein hay and high protein grain will give fairly good results. Remember there is no substitute for high quality legume hay.

Cork Substitute

Farm wastes have provided a new type of cork substitute according to a recent announcement by the United States department of agriculture.

This product is reported to be the equal of cork discs used in bottling food and beverage products. It is made from pith and fibers from sugarcane, cornstalks, peanut hulls and similar materials, combined with animal or other vegetable glues and sugars, apple honey or glycerine.

One cork substitute was developed by the Northern Regional Research laboratory at Peoria, Ill., working in cooperation with food and beverage industries.

H. J. R. No. 62
proposing an Amendment to Article
III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of a new Section to be known as Section 49-b, creating a Veteran's Land Board
and establishing a Veteran's Land Fund; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation thereof.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature
of the State of Texas:
Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 49-b which shall read as follows:

"Section 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veteran's Land Board, which shall be composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office.
The Legislature shall provide by law for the issuance of said Board of not to exceed Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas, for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veteran's Land Fund.
Such bonds shall be executed by said Board as an obligation of the State of Texas in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as shall be prescribed by law, provided,
however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum.

"In the sale of any such bonds a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various teacher retirement funds,
the Permanent University Funds,
and the Permanent Free School Funds; such bonds to be issued only as needed, in the opinion of the Veteran's Land Board under legislative authorization.

"The Veteran's Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in this State (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Prison System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm or corporation.

"All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veteran's Land Fund.

"The lands of the Veteran's Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas Veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and such rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law; provided,
however, that any such lands remaining unsold at the expiration of eight (8) years after the effective date of this Amendment may be sold to anyone as shall be prescribed
by law.

"All moneys received and which have been received and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of lands and for interest on deferred payments shall be credited to the Veteran's Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, in like manner as shall be provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of the bonds, provided for herein, for a period of eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on the bonds herein provided for shall be set aside for that purpose. After eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment, all moneys received by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of the lands
and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of said bonds and to pay interest thereon, and any of such moneys not so needed shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purpose as may be prescribed
by law.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first Thursday, 1946 at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

"For the Amendment to Article
III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 49-b creating a Veteran's Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

"Against the Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 49-b creating a Veteran's Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date of the determination of such result and the Governor's proclamation thereof.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Section 4. The sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expense of such publication and election.

Washington Newsletter

By Congressman Gene Worley

The Philippine Islands are also of strategic importance to us in our perimeter of defense and in the basic legislation the United States retained the right to keep and develop them as long as we so desired.
The population of the Philippines is approximately 18 million people which represents nearly all classes or castes. Manuel Roxas was recently elected by an overwhelming majority to be the first President of the Philippines. There is a question in my own mind, however, as to whether the Philippines were actually ready for or could discharge the obligations which their independence carried. Their economy was of course ruined by the Japanese and they still seemed groggy
from the brutality of the Jap occupation. However, President Roxas assured us that in spite of these handicaps they could and would do everything within their power to convince the world they could stand on their own feet and take their place in the world of nations. They depend in large measure upon the export of sugar but most of the sugar mills were destroyed by the enemy and Mr. Roxas said they needed at least 150 thousand tons of ammonium sulphate as fertilizer
but had been able to secure but 15 tons as yet from the United States.

Prices in the Philippines are high,
as they seem to be all over the world. As you can imagine, there is not very much to buy and in such a chaotic economy prices naturally rise.

The Independence Day ceremony itself was very impressive. Because of the extreme midday heat in the Philippines, most affairs are scheduled for early morning, consequently we were on hand at 8 o'clock the next morning, July 4. Among the speakers was Senator Tydings of Maryland, Commissioner McNutt, President Roxas and General Douglas MacArthur, who occupies a very high place in the hearts of the Filipinos. The square was packed and jammed with Filipino people and despite another rain during the middle of the ceremony, the Philippines became a living Republic that morning.

There was a State Dinner that night which was attended by ambassadors and other dignitaries from Russia, England, France, and nearly all other countries.

The next day we saw at first hand
Bataan, ruined Corregidor, Subic Bay, and other U. S. installations which gave mute testimony of the bloody battles which were fought there.

The Islands themselves are most impressive in their tropical productivity but they could do with the know-how which the American farmer could supply. Incidentally, Mr. Roxas also said they welcomed with open arms any and all Americans who could provide such know-how and industry.

From the Philippines, we left for Shanghai—a distance of 1250 miles, arriving there late in the afternoon,
flying along the edge of Formosa
which had been in Japanese hands during the occupation. In order to get a better look at the rice paddies and crops and people living along this shore, we dropped to an altitude of 200 or 250 feet. While airplanes are not exactly a novelty out there, one native who saw the giant four-engine plane skimming over his head, threw up his hands in consternation and began running toward us and then turned and started the other way. When we passed over him he was still running. Although we dipped one wing in friendly salute he must have thought it was the enemy coming back.

Next Week: China.

WARWICK'S

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories.

We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil.

The steel industry takes pride in the way
it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plow-share to the giant combine—have multiplied
in number and increased vastly in quality.

Fifty years ago the typical farm in America used about 3 tons of steel. Today the figure is nearer 17½ tons.

That is a measure of the modernization of agriculture and an indication of the interdependence of steel and farming.

We no longer have separate "farm production problems" or "industrial production problems." We have but one set of problems for everybody.

If strikes, for instance, restrict the supply of farm implements and supplies through work stoppages, or make their cost prohibitive, America is out of gear.

Anything which tends in this direction is bad for the farmer—and finally for everybody.
Farmers know it. Everybody else should know it.

* * *

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND
